

At the start of your housing journey, you will have to choose a pathway of whether you want to look for private properties or apply for social housing. Write down some of the differences or even similarities you think there might be between the two. There are no right or wrong answers!

Private Housing

Social Housing

You

Complete the other task/s to find out more!